

ST Connector

Description

The ST® connector is a bayonet fit style connector with a fixed ferrule. The connector comprises of a 2.5 mm zirconia ceramic ferrule, with a metal body and locking nut. The strain relief boots are available in a variety of colours for polarity and identification purposes.

The multimode versions are suitable for field termination with the single-mode suitable for machine polishing to a UPC finish.

Features and benefits

- Typical insertion losses of 0.3 dB.
- Multimode ferrules with 127 µm capillary
- Single-mode ferrules 126 µm capillary.
- Designed to fit 900 µm and 3.0 mm cables.
- Colour coded boots available.
- Zirconia or phosphor-bronze adapters available.